

Detoxifying Commerce

Hybrid Conference
(Zoom or in Person)

It is feasible to greatly reduce the use of toxic and hazardous substances. Join us to hear from experts on why we must and how we can reduce toxics in our lives, and then help articulate the Detox Agenda we need, or learn about Environmental Data Utilization - understanding the mountains of data that can be mined to advance the social interest in bettering public and environmental health.

April 19th
2023

2:00 PM -
5:00 PM EST

Location:
640 Commonwealth
Ave, Room 209

Register for Zoom Attendance Here

Speakers Include:

Wilma Subra
President,
Subra Company

Rachel Massey
Science and Policy Advisor,
Collaborative on Health and Env't.

Bev Thorpe
Program Manager,
Clean Production Action

Nick Ashford
Director,
MIT Environmental Law

Joel Tickner
Professor,
UMass Lowell LCSP

Kenneth Geiser
Author,
Chemicals Without Harm

Terri Goldberg
Former Executive Director,
NEWMOA

Swati Rayasam
Scientist, Organizer,
UCSF Center Reproductive Health

2:00 PM - 4:00 PM

Basing Policy on Rights and Values

Curtailing Insults to Biological Receptors

The Case of Mercury: Transparency without Sequestration

Countering Confused Policies with Clarity about Toxics

The Fundamental Importance of Alternatives Analysis

Safe Prosperity: Green Production and Chemistry

Understanding all the Tools of Governance

4:00 PM - 5:00 PM

Learn about Environmental Data Utilization

OR

Register to Participate in Breakout Sessions to Articulate a DETOX AGENDA, Room 453, 675 Commonwealth Avenue.
email floyde@bu.edu with DETOX in the subject line.

BOSTON UNIVERSITY

For More Information: <https://www.bu.edu/rccp/2023/04/06/detoxifying-commerce/>

