

MAJOR IN SPANISH

THE SPANISH MAJOR REQUIRES 11 4-CREDIT COURSES

Required Courses

- Two CAS LS language courses at the 300 level (native or heritage speakers of Spanish should enroll in LS 309 and a Hispanic literature course or in two Hispanic literature courses, after consultation with an advisor).
- Six CAS LS courses, to include LS 350 (Introduction to Analysis of Hispanic Texts), three courses at the 400 level, and two courses at the 500 level.

Three Elective Courses

- CAS LS 400- or 500-level offerings in Hispanic literature, culture, or film
- Courses numbered CAS LP 211 or higher in Portuguese language or Luso-Brazilian literature, culture, or film
- Spanish linguistics courses*
- Related courses approved for the major in African American Studies, Anthropology, Archaeology, Classical Studies, Comparative Literature, the Core Curriculum, Editorial Studies, English, French Studies, History, History of Art & Architecture, International Relations, Italian Studies, General Linguistics (including CAS LX 250, which is a prerequisite for 400- and 500-level courses in Spanish linguistics), Philosophy, Religion, or Women's, Gender, & Sexuality Studies.