

MAJOR IN SPANISH

WHAT DO I NEED TO DO?	HOW DO I DO THAT?
Take your prerequisites	Take courses in Spanish up to and including LS 212, or the equivalent as determined by placement tests or your AP/SAT II score.
Meet with an advisor	Don't see a Spanish advisor on MyBU? Contact the Romance Studies Office at rstudies@bu.edu.
Take eleven classes	Use the checklist below to plan your studies

WHAT DO I NEED?	WHAT COUNTS?	HUB Credit?	PLANNER
Foundational courses - all the same courses you need for your Minor
Two advanced courses: Spanish through literature, translation, film, performance, business, etc.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> No more than 2 courses chosen from LS 306, LS 307, LS 308, LS 309, LS 310, LS 312, and LS 318 Note: Native or heritage speakers of Spanish should enroll in LS 309 and a Hispanic literature course or in two Hispanic literature courses, after consultation with an advisor 	May fulfill requirements for IIC, GCI, WIN, OSC, etc. *Check the Bulletin for specifics on which course fulfills which HUB requirement	_____ _____
Advanced Courses - just four beyond the Minor
One introduction to the textual analysis of Hispanic Literature	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> LS 350 (Introduction to Analysis of Hispanic Texts) 	Fulfills requirement for AEX, GCI	_____
Five additional courses about the Spanish-speaking world	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Three courses at the 400 level Two courses at the 500 level For any questions on advanced courses, contact your advisor or rstudies@bu.edu Study abroad courses can fulfill requirements as well! Consult with your advisor and with the BU Study Abroad office (abroad@bu.edu) 	May fulfill requirements for AEX, GCI, WIN, CRT *Check the Bulletin for specifics on which course fulfills which HUB requirement	_____ _____ _____ _____ _____
Electives - a chance to count classes you have taken outside the department
Connect any three courses about the Spanish-speaking world that you have taken in Study Abroad, Linguistics, other BU departments, or other BU schools and get Major credit for them. *No more than two taken in a language other than Spanish	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> CAS LS 400 or 500 level offerings in Hispanic Literature, culture, or film Courses numbered CAS LP 211 or higher in Portuguese language or Luso-Brazilian literature, culture, or film Spanish linguistics courses; including CAS LX 250, which is a prerequisite for 400 and 500 level courses in Spanish Linguistics Related courses approved for the major in other degrees (see Spanish Major info guide on our website for entire list) Want to upgrade your existing Spanish Minor to a Major in Spanish? Use this space for additional classes that were taught in Spanish. 	May fulfill requirements for AEX, GCI, WIN, CRT, HCO, CRI, etc. *Check the Bulletin for specifics on which course fulfills which HUB requirement	_____ _____ _____