

Last Thursday Lunch Talk of the year!

Dean Mary
Elizabeth Moore:

“Women in Leadership:
Charismas and Challenges”

Thursday April 22, 2010 (BU Monday)
12:30-1:15p.m.

Anna Howard Shaw Center—STH Rm 320

Mary Elizabeth Mullino Moore is Dean of the School of Theology and Professor of Theology and Education. She received a B.A. and M.A. from Southern Methodist University and an M.A. and Ph.D. from Claremont School of Theology. Dean Moore sees her primary work as working with others and contributing her small part toward repair of the world (tikkun olam). Her recent books include Teaching as a Sacramental Act, Ministering with the Earth, and Teaching from the Heart, plus the co-edited volumes Children, Youth, and Spirituality in a Troubling World and Practical Theology and Hermeneutics. She has also written many articles on education, process and feminist theologies, and justice and reconciliation. Mary Elizabeth is married to Allen, and they have five children and eight grandchildren.

BOSTON UNIVERSITY