

The Veterans RAND 12 Item Health Survey (VR-12) and/or Veterans RAND 36 Item Health Survey (VR-36) are provided to you subject to the following Terms of Use, which may be updated by Boston University from time to time with or without notice to you.

By using the VR-12 and/or VR-36, you agree to these Terms of Use. If you do not agree to all of these Terms of Use, do not use the VR-12 and/or VR-36.

- You are granted permission to use the VR-12 and/or VR-36 for the specific purpose and/or study described in the request form

You understand and acknowledge the following:

- The VR-12 and VR-36 assess the individual's physical, mental, social and role functioning for quality assessment and evaluation programs and research purposes. The VR-12 and the VR-36 are not clinical tools to diagnose or treat participants, nor should it serve as a substitute for professional medical advice, diagnosis, treatment, or prevention.
- Changes to the VR-12 and/or VR-36, including without limitation changes to the wording and order of the questions and scoring algorithm, may not be made without our written permission. To the extent that you make any changes to the VR-12 and VR-36, you may not refer to the modified tools as "VR-12" or "VR-36" in any oral communications or written publications.
- You accept full responsibility, and agrees to indemnify and hold Boston University harmless, for the accuracy of any translations of the health survey(s) into another language (other than Boston University issued versions of VR-12 and VR-36 translations) and for any errors, omissions, misinterpretations, or consequences thereof.
- You accept full responsibility, and agrees to indemnify and hold Boston University harmless, for any claims, actions, suits, demands, damages, liabilities, obligations, losses, settlements, judgments, costs and expenses (including without limitation attorneys' fees and costs) which arise out of, relate to or result from your use of the VR-12 and/or VR-36.
- You will properly attribute and acknowledge the developers of the VR-12 and/or VR-36 in presentations and written publications involving these health surveys.
- You agree that exclusive jurisdiction for any dispute with Boston University, or in any way relating to your use of the VR-12 and/or VR-36, resides in the courts of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and you further agree and expressly consent to the exercise of personal jurisdiction in the courts of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts in connection with any such dispute including any claim involving your use of the VR-12 and/or VR-36.
- You agree that these Terms of Use are governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, without respect to its conflict of laws principles.
