II. ORIENTATION REQUIREMENTS

To protect and ensure the academic quality and integrity of our Program, students are required to attend the following:

- BUSSW Online MSW Program Orientation – Student orientation webinar done virtually
- Online Campus New Student Orientation – Self-Paced Tutorial (Includes Live Classroom Training)

The Online Campus Orientation will be available on Tuesday, August 20, 2019, 10 a.m. EST at https://onlinecampus.bu.edu. Login information will be sent to students via email.

PLEASE NOTE: Failure to complete the orientations may result in poor performance in Program.

The BUSSW Online MSW Program Orientation occurs 1-2 weeks before each semester and is offered as a live webinar. Login information will be sent to admitted students via email

- Option 1: Thursday, August 22, 2019, 7:00 – 8:00 pm EST or
- Option 2: Tuesday, August 27, 2019, 4:00 – 5:00 pm EST

III. PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS FOR NEW STUDENTS

After completion of the required orientations students should review and complete the following:

- The BUSSW Program Requirements. Please submit to SSWOLP@bu.edu.
- The Academic Honesty Tutorial/PowerPoint

Please be aware of the following technology requirements to allow you to fully participate in the program:

- A computer with high-speed internet (50 mpbs)
- A Webcam and a headset with a microphone

Please check the System Requirements

Pre-Entrance Reading Requirement - In response to the needs of diverse populations and in recognition of the role of race and ethnicity in meeting human needs, BUSSW requires incoming students to read the following:

- The New Jim Crow: Mass Incarceration in the Age of Colorblindness by Michelle Alexander

PLEASE NOTE: Be sure to read this book prior to entering the program. A book discussion will be held during the First Thursday event in December.

IV. PROGRAM PLANS

Students follow a standard program plan to ensure completion of the MSW degree requirements. Program plans will vary depending on a student’s major (clinical or macro), track: Traditional Track (TT), Human Service Experience (HSE) or Advance Standing (AS) and semester entrance.

Access Entering Fall 2019 Program Plans

Please be sure to retain a copy of your program plan for your records and use it as guide when registering for courses. Your First Semester Advisor will review your program plan with you.
Request for Adjustments to your Program Plan

Adjustments to program plans may be made as needed. Any variation from the program plan requires written pre-approval from OLP Administration and this request can be made through the Revised Program Plan Request Form. This is done to ensure that you meet all the graduation requirements.

V. THE ONLINE CAMPUS

All courses are hosted on a web-based course management system called the Online Campus. You can access the following information via the Online Campus:

- Course Content / Course syllabi / Announcements / Handouts
- Live Classroom sessions / Video conferencing / Discussion boards
- Orientation / Student Resources

Once you access the Online Campus you will see:

My Courses

Student Resources and Communications Hub
A central repository for events, newsletters, workshops, academic and career resource information including access to a writing refresher course. Please visit this site regularly.

SSW MSW Online Student Community Center

Program Orientation - access a recording of the most recent orientation webinar and information about the pre-entrance reading requirement.

SSW Master of Social Work Information Central - portal to all BUSSW information including resources and supports, curriculum and program plan, advising and field education, and BUSSW policies and procedures.

The Student Lounge - Engage in discussions outside of the classroom, read newsletters, student organization blogs, and connect with social media.

- Online Course Structure

Course content is available online through the Online Campus and can be accessed and completed at your pace. Please be sure to meet the assignment deadlines. Attendance is required for the weekly Live Classroom sessions. You will need to login and participate at specific times. Each course has a Teaching Team which includes an Instructor of Record and several Online Course Facilitators. Each course section is managed by a Course Facilitator and includes a group of up to 15 students.

The Online Course Facilitator is your direct contact regarding curriculum and course-related issues. The Facilitator is a content expert who assists the faculty in teaching the course; oversees, facilitates and monitors student interaction; maintains ongoing communicating with students; assesses student’s performance and makes appropriate referrals as needed.

The Instructor of Record teaches the course, recaps course information each week, and is available to answer questions about course content.

- LIVE CLASSROOM

All courses have a Live Classroom component allowing for synchronous ‘real time’ interaction among instructors, facilitators, and students. Live Classroom sessions are held weekly for 1-1.5 hours on Sunday and Monday evenings Eastern Standard Time. During Live Classroom sessions, students are expected to participate and fully engage in the course activities. Please review course syllabi to ensure that you understand the live classroom participation and grading requirements.

PLEASE NOTE: Students are required to complete the Live Classroom training sessions prior entering the program. To participate you will be given access to a ZOOM classroom and you do not need to purchase software to participate.

VI. COURSE MATERIALS

Prior to the beginning of each course, you will receive information on the required textbooks and course materials to purchase. Textbooks may be ordered online through the BU Barnes & Noble Bookstore and are available for purchase one month prior to the start of the course. Please be sure to purchase these early to ensure that you have them prior to the beginning of class.

Supplemental Readings
Instructors will often have a collection of articles that supplement readings from textbooks. These supplemental readings are available electronically via the Mugar Library Course Reserves. To access the supplemental readings, you must be registered for the course. To access the Supplemental Readings go to http://www.bu.edu/library/services/reserves/ and follow the tutorial.

VII. FIELD EDUCATION

Field Education provides students with opportunities to apply what they learn in the classroom to actual practice in social work and other human service settings. Traditional Track and Human Service Experience students enter the field in their 4th semester, AS students enter the field in their 3rd semester. Additional Information regarding field education is available at The Boston University School of Social Work Guide to Field Education.

VIII. STUDENT SUPPORT AND RESOURCES

THE ONLINE PROGRAM ADVISING PROTOCOL
Our students have access to a variety of supports including a First Semester Advisor, a Regional Advisor, and the Online Program Team (OLP Assistant Director, OLP Coordinator of Advising, and the OLP Administrator).

Online Program students are assigned to a First Semester Advisor when they enter the program. First Semester Advisors are members of the BUSSW Online Program Team. Students are transferred to a Regional Advisor when they enter the second semester of the program.

First Semester Advising
The First Semester Advisor meets with students through monthly, small group seminars and individually, as needed. This Seminar offers an introduction and an overview to BUSSW, the Online Program, and the social work profession.
The Regional Advisor
When you enter the second semester in the Program, you will be assigned to a Regional Advisor who is located near geographic area. You will keep this advisor throughout your enrollment. Advisors are available for consultation, problem solving and advocacy on a range of issues; serve as the field liaison; work collaboratively with students and the OLP Field Education Team to find appropriate field internship within the student’s geographical location.

THE INTEGRATIVE SEMINAR (IS100)
The Integrative Seminar is a developmental, not-for-credit, seminar that students are enrolled in throughout the program. The seminars focus on professional development, preparation for, and support during the field internship. Each module of the seminar is offered once each semester. You will note that the IS 100 seminar is listed on your program plan, please be sure to register for IS100 each semester.

FIRST THURSDAYS
First Thursdays offers students an opportunity to participate in curricular, social, professional development opportunities and events, and to engage in conversation with the BUSSW community. These events are held via Zoom web conferencing on the first Thursday of each month from 8:30 – 9:30 PM EST.
