Executive Order: "Protecting the Nation from Terrorist Attacks by Foreign Nationals" (Refugee/Muslim Ban)

Spanish Translation
This Executive Order suspends the refugee resettlement program for 120 days; indefinitely suspends the admission of Syrian refugees; and suspends entry by non-citizens from Muslim- and Arab-majority countries for at least 90 days, among other things.

- Alert: On February 9, 2017, the 9th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals in San Francisco upheld the restraining order that prohibits the federal government from enforcing several sections of the January 27, 2017 Executive Order. This order applies nationwide. Please see our Questions and Answers document for more information.

If you encounter Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) or other law enforcement officers at home, on the street, or anywhere else, remember that you have the rights described in this fact sheet. The factsheet also provides suggestions for what you should do to assert your rights.

✓ You have the right to remain silent. You may refuse to speak to immigration officers.
  - Don’t answer any questions. You may also say that you want to remain silent.
  - Don’t say anything about where you were born or how you entered the U.S.

✓ You have the right to speak to a lawyer.
  - You can simply say, "I need to speak to my attorney."
  - You may have your lawyer with you if ICE or other law enforcement questions you.

✓ Before you sign anything, talk to a lawyer
  - ICE may try to get you to sign away your right to see a lawyer or a judge. Be sure you understand what a document actually says before you sign it.

✓ Always carry with you any valid immigration document you have.
  - For example, if you have a valid work permit or green card, be sure to have it with you in case you need to show it for identification purposes.
  - Do not carry papers from another country with you, such as a foreign passport. Such papers could be used against you in the deportation process.

✓ Create a safety plan.
  - Memorize the phone number of a friend, family member, or attorney that you can call if you are arrested.
  - If you take care of children or other people, make a plan to have them taken care of if you are detained.
  - Keep important documents such as birth certificates and immigration documents in a safe place where a friend or family member can access them if necessary.
  - Make sure your loved ones know how to find you if you are detained by ICE. They can use ICE’s online detainee locator.
