Senior Minister Position Description

Fountain Street Church, Grand Rapids, Michigan

Fountain Street Church (https://www.fountainstreet.org) has initiated a search for its ninth senior minister with the goal of beginning settled ministry in the fall of 2020. Known as Fountain Street Baptist Church prior to 1962, the congregation now describes itself as a non-creedal, non-denominational, liberal church.

The church has 374 pledging units¹ and estimates that it serves a congregation of members, stakeholders and friends numbering about one thousand. Its annual operating budget was $1,168,000 in 2018. The corpus of the church’s endowed funds held by the affiliated Fountain Street Church Foundation is approximately $3,680,000.

The Opportunity

Fountain Street Church seeks a senior minister to lead its spiritual and religious life, including worship, preaching, music, pastoral care, education and social justice activities. The Senior Minister is responsible for implementing goals and policies determined by the Governing Board, except for areas or functions delegated to an Associate Minster. The Senior Minister should be proficient in interviewing, hiring, supporting, developing and evaluating all staff involved in the spiritual and religious life of the church.

The ideal candidate will be:
- A builder of community and connections
- A leader who can empower the congregation
- A distinguished preacher
- An excellent communicator, comfortable with audiences both large and small
- Empathetic, humble and personable
- Intellectually stimulating
- Enthusiastic and dynamic
- A good interpersonal listener
- Inclusive, open-minded, collegial and collaborative
- Supportive and accessible

The Church

The church’s mission is to support the creative tension between intellect and spirit, science and faith, individual and community, tradition and change, challenging us to honor our legacy by embracing the future.

The church’s vision is to strive to be a vibrant church community that challenges individuals to craft their own spiritual journeys, and to engage in creative and responsible action in the world.

¹ A “pledge unit” is a term indicating an individual or group (e.g. family) making a pledge. It is not the same as “member.” There are more members than pledge units.
The church’s core values are to value the spirit of inquiry which respects the religious, humanist, and spiritual teachings from many wisdom traditions; we value the direct experience of the mystery that moves us to engage in the never-ending search for universal truths that free the mind.

We value the active practice of love and justice in human relationships which validate the worth and dignity of each human being, inspiring us to deepen our commitment to deeds over creeds, calling us to grow the soul.

We value community founded on the purposeful inclusion of all, in the service of others within our church and beyond, connecting and empowering us to change the world.

A wide range of religious services, educational programs and social action commitments provides important services to the city and the surrounding region. The Senior Minister who leads Fountain Street Church plays a significant role as the steward of these resources for the benefit of the congregation, community stakeholders, the greater Grand Rapids metropolitan area and west Michigan.

About Fountain Street Church
Information about Fountain Street Church, its history and the city and region it serves has been compiled in a detailed congregational profile for the use of applicants posted on the church’s web site at www.fountainstreet.org/jobs. General information about the church may be found at www.fountainstreet.org.

The Senior Minister’s Position
The Senior Minister of Fountain Street Church is the church’s strategic and religious leader with responsibility for ensuring that the church fulfills its mission. The Senior Minister leads staff, volunteers and congregants in maintaining a commitment to the church’s core values by providing and overseeing religious services and programs. In addition, the Senior Minister is the primary spokesperson, motivator and ambassador for the congregation, articulating its value and contribution to the city and region for congregants, visitors, community leaders, supporters and the public.

The Senior Minister is responsible for the planning and finances of all religious services and programs. They will lead the ministerial staff in executing the church’s strategic plan and will be responsible for managing religious services on a full-time basis.

Qualified candidates will have a clear vision of our potential and how to help us reach it. To paraphrase one of our past senior ministers, the Rev. Dr. David O. Rankin (1982-1997), the Senior Minister will have “a respect for learning … a devotion to freedom … a passion for diversity … a dislike of sham … a belief in human dignity … a need for communion … a zeal for peace and justice … as well as a naturalistic theology, which feels the pulse of the Divine in every breath of life.”

• An advanced degree in conjunction with several years of church or related professional experience is minimally required. A doctoral degree in philosophy or theology or a relevant humanities discipline with six years of church or related professional experience meets the preferred qualifications.
Critical Competencies for Success

Strategic Leadership: The Senior Minister must create a compelling, intellectually exciting, and spiritually challenging agenda to address the short- and long-term opportunities and challenges facing the church by:

• Engaging minds and souls of all ages by emphasizing spirituality and preaching strong and substantive sermons with prophetic witness. Demonstrating an appreciation for the church’s potential to further evolve as a valued liberal religious organization and forum for religious thought, spiritual growth, ethical action, learning and civil public discourse.

• Honoring, celebrating and promoting the power of music to heal the soul.

• Inspiring and uplifting congregational confidence and enthusiasm and appropriately balancing consensus building with decisiveness while providing hope for all stakeholders.

• Effectively leading congregants and church staff through growth and change that honors the past and anticipates the future, while always activating, respecting and empowering the church’s many small groups.

• Assessing external dynamics and institutional strengths and weaknesses to develop a roadmap for the future which links financial realities to the church’s mission and strategic plan. Exhibiting a willingness to change in response to external changes and internal priorities.

Vision and an Appreciation for the Significance of Religious Life: In times of constant change, the Senior Minister must be willing and eager to expand viewpoints about liberal religion and thought and envision how the members can and will be motivated to grow spiritually to improve our community and the world both now and in the future.

• The successful candidate for Senior Minister will have demonstrated vision and creativity and a deep commitment to engaging congregants in exploration of the enduring relevance of religious inquiry and spiritual growth.

• Multiple constituents with diverse religious beliefs cherish Fountain Street Church’s past and future. The Senior Minister must be able to discern their interests and make decisions about limited resources that reflect a keen understanding of the changes in attitude toward religious organizations occurring both within the church as well as in society at large.

• The Senior Minister must work with the congregation and staff to ensure that the church’s strategic assets and its rich network of relationships are not only nurtured but shared appropriately through collaboration to leverage and increase access to its rich religious resources and traditions.

• Religion and personal growth are experienced from widely differing perspectives. Fountain Street Church expects its Senior Minister to present, encourage and conduct worship and offer religious educational programs that reflect the richness of the church’s theological diversity, while being responsive to its congregation’s broad range of ages, backgrounds and levels of income.
Profile Raising and Resource Development: In a resource-constrained environment, the Senior Minister must have the ability to engage and connect internal and external audiences with the church’s mission and vision and increase public and private support by:
• Serving as an advocate for the church to ensure the priorities and goals of the organization are well represented, understood, and eventually funded.
• Leading and directing aggressive and effective solicitations and grant writing for individual and other sources of support.
• Articulating, in an inspiring way, the importance of the church’s mission and the value of a direct, personal experience with spiritual growth in the context of an artistic environment.
• Generating excitement and engagement, elevating the church in the minds of its congregants, board members, congregational leaders, supporters and community and leveraging that enthusiasm both verbally and through the written word to expand the base of support.

Compensation & Benefits
Salary and benefits are competitive with other churches of similar size in similar geographic areas. A salary range for this position will be established by the Governing Board and exact terms will be established as part of the finalist interview and hiring process, depending on the candidate’s level of experience.
