| January 31 at 1PM | Basic Library Orientation (Sean Smith)
An introduction to all of the services and resources the library offers, including: borrowing privileges, course reserves, getting reference help, scanning and printing.  |
| February 7 at 1PM | How to Find Books and More! (Kara Jackman)
Use BU’s online catalog to quickly and effectively search for and discover needed resources for your classes.  |
| February 14 at 1PM | Interlibrary Loan Borrowing (Sean Smith)
Learn how to obtain the perfect resource needed for your paper from libraries in the BTI, BLC, and even throughout the world!  |
| February 21 at 1PM | Research Methods (Kara Jackman)
Develop a topic and brainstorm. Create an outline and mind maps. Advance your thesis and write a paper with strong evidence, using primary and secondary sources.  |
| February 28 at 1PM | RefWorks Workshop (Amy Limpitlaw)
Utilize RefWorks, a bibliographic manager that is free to BU students, which will help you organize your notes and create bibliographies, footnotes, and endnotes.  |
| March 7 | NO WORKSHOP; Spring Break.  |
| March 14 (I) & March 21 (II) at 1PM | Social Media and Real World Data I & II (Kara Jackman)
Find primary source data and organize datasets in Excel or Google Spreadsheets. From census data released by the government to survey data collected by nonprofit organizations, discover the millions of bits of information found online, and how it can take your research to the next level.  |
| March 28 at 1PM | Plagiarism Workshop (Stacey Duran)
Learn how to give credit where credit is due, and get useful tips on how and what to cite in your research papers.  |
| April 4 at 1PM | Using Databases to Find Articles (Stacey Duran)
Find out how to use the ATLA database and other important religion and theology databases to find and download full-text articles for your research.  |
| April 11 at 1PM | Zotero Workshop (Stacey Duran)
Integrate free citation manager Zotero into your research process, seamlessly helping you organize your resources, create bibliographies, and more!  |
| April 18 at 1PM | Apps for Studying (Stacey Duran)
This workshop gives an overview of the wide range of mobile apps that can help make your studying easier and your research more efficient. We will cover the ATLA (EBSCO) app, the JSTOR app, and more! No smartphone or experience with smartphones is necessary for this fun workshop on the exciting future of studying.  |

All workshops will be held in the STH Library’s Instruction Room (room 209) and last approximately 30 minutes.
