

Potential New Student Organization

Group Name:

Constitution Attached: YES / NO

	Highly Recommend	Might recommend	Would not recommend
Mission Statement and Added Value	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Mission statement is wholly separate, different, and unique from all existing organizations • Organization meets a significant need on campus, and will have a strong, positive impact on the community 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Mission statement is similar to existing organizations, but approaches the overall topic and statement from a different angle • Organization meets a need on campus, and will have a moderate to positive impact on the community • Mission may be able to be accomplished without being a student club or organization 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Mission statement is identical or very similar to an already existing club or organization on campus • Minimally or does not fulfill a need on campus, and will have no or negative impact on the campus community • Is a university/faculty/staff initiative • Mission includes coordinating internship opportunities. • Sole purpose is to generate profit
Constitution and Organizational Structure	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Constitution is detailed, organized, and captures the essence of the club or organization • Organizational structure is aptly suited to the needs of the organizational mission, and will position the organization to achieve its mission 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Constitution outlines the general needs and expectations of the club or organization • Organizational structure is generally suited to the needs of the mission statement • Overall constitution and organizational structure may have some inefficiencies and errors 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Constitution does not outline general needs and expectations of the club or organization • Organizational structure is inefficient and unorganized • Overall constitution and organizational structure needs extensive work and restructuring
Sustainability	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Highly likely to maintain long-term relevancy and a positive impact on campus • Club or organization is likely to grow even after the graduation and departure of the founders 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Moderately likely to maintain long-term relevancy on campus • Club or organization may be focused on a specific topic that is unlikely to keep the interest or demand of the student population • Club or organization may or may not grow after the graduation and departure of the founders 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Will become irrelevant to the campus community after 1-2 years • Club or organization is likely to shrink/dissolve after the graduation and departure of the founders
Action Plan	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Clearly defined and appropriate short-term and long-term goals • Plans for achieving these goals are practical and reasonable • Probable challenges have been considered and addressed appropriately • Events and meetings have been planned and executed successfully 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Some specific, articulated short-term and long-term goals • Plans to achieve goals are mostly realistic, with some elements that are impractical or challenges • Some obstacles have been considered, but major challenges have not been addressed • Some events and meetings have been executed, with limited success • Have already contacted similar groups to differentiate mission and/or collaborate 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • No specific, articulated short-term or long-term goals • Plans to achieve goals are unrealistic • Probable challenges are not addressed • No events or meetings organized or executed

☐ Check if aspects or nature of the group's mission and/or programming is contingent on the approval of the Office of Risk Management

Additional Comments: