

Financial Information

If you need an I-20 Form from Boston University, the University is required by U.S. government regulations to check that you have adequate funding available for your tuition, fees, and living expenses for the duration of your studies at Boston University. All financial documents submitted for evaluation will become the property of Boston University and will not be returned to you. It is recommended that you request multiple copies of the documentation listed below to submit to Boston University and to retain for your records. Please refer to Estimated Expenses for International High School Honors Students page for the breakdown of fees and for the minimum funds required per summer session.

All declarations of financial support must:

2. Specify funding for study at Boston University (not another college or university)
3. Include a date that is no more than one year from the intended date of enrollment
4. Indicate the period of time for which the support will be provided

2. Your sponsor's official bank statement, letter, or credit reference stating the availability of the minimum estimated expenses as indicated on the Estimated Expenses for International High School Honors Students page.

1. Your name and that the funding is valid specifically for Boston University.
2. Exactly which expenses will be covered (i.e., academic fees, living expenses, health insurance, financial support for family members, travel, etc.)
3. The period of time for which the support will be provided.

If you will be funded by a bank loan, you must submit:
