EVENT OF THE WEEK

Streetfest: Food Trucks United

Friday, 4 October, 5PM-10PM

Belmore Park, Eddy Ave

Hip-hop performances, live art demonstrations, drinks and food trucks! What a great way to celebrate the end of exams and papers. Belmore Park is just around the corner near Central Station. Walk over and grab some tucker! Lots of foods and different flavors for all kinds of palates. The timing is so good. It's like we planned it!

Goodgod Small Club Fourth Birthday

Sunday, 5 November 9pm

Goodgod Small Club, Liverpool St Sydney

The eccentric, eclectic Goodgod Small Club is letting the good times roll in the CBD. To celebrate their fourth birthday they are putting on an epic shindig. That means a venue-consuming, all-night-long, convention-obliterating party with the theme of 'Taking Care of Business'. If I were you, I'd wear a suit!

Pinot Palooza 2014

Monday, 6 October 1pm

Carriage Works, Eveleigh

Whether you're a newbie who wants to start with something light and inviting, or a Pinot pro ready for the biggest, most complex mouthful on the menu, there'll be an abundance of selections at either end — and plenty along the spectrum, too. You'll even be able to vote for your favourite and go in the draw to win some wine-driven prizes.

Jenna on Halloween

"Save the date! BU is hosting a Halloween party on Friday, 31 October. Be there or be a jack-o'-lantern. There will be more details to come in future editions of the Quay!"

Manly Jazz Festival

Until 6 October

North Steyne, Manly

Take the ferry out to Manly this weekend for the Manly Jazz Festival. Listening to live music at the beach... not a bad way to spend the weekend. Best of all, this 37-year-old tradition will be free to see and hum along to until next Monday!

Rozelle Markets

Saturdays 9am-4pm

663 Darling St, Rozelle

If you haven't gotten to see them yet check out these markets this Saturday. Rozelle is the closest Sydney gets to old European flea market. From vintage fur coats and Elton John on vinyl to rusting collectors' coins, dog-eared paperbacks, dusty china teacups, and '80s denim jackets, Rozelle is a bargain-hunter's dream come true.
