

With Session 1 courses underway, most of you should be feeling a bit more settled in. Below is a short list to help you further explore Sydney. Make the most of your time as things are only going to get busier with modules starting the week after next!

Sharon on Academics

"Class selection/registration is now closed for this teaching session. AN368 group excursions will be this Thursday, 22 January in 2 hour blocks. Also, the AH374: Art & Architecture field trip to Canberra departs on Monday, 2 February. Please plan accordingly."

PA Event Taronga Zoo

Saturday, January 24 at 11am
Meet PA Lawrence outside BUSAC

What better way to start off your weekend than taking a ferry ride to the local zoo! Join PA Lawrence for a group event at Taronga Zoo. Bring $32.50 to buy a ticket and money for the ferry ride as well. The last thing you'll need is your camera, this is one of the most picturesque spots in Sydney! Sign up and meet in front of the BUSAC at 11am to join.

tarronga.org.au

Moonlight Cinema

Until 29 March, 8:30PM
Belvedere Amphitheatre, Centennial Park, Paddington

Australia's favourite open-air cinema is screening advance previews, contemporary, cult and classic movies on the lawns of Centennial Park. If you're feeling hungry then Moonlight's got you covered. Feel free to turn up with a picnic and a bottle of wine or order anything from a pulled pork sandwich to a cinnamon churro and a cold beer! Tickets are $18. You can also rent a bean bag for an extra $9!

moonlight.com.au

Australia vs. India 1-Day Cricket

Monday, 26 January at 2:20pm
Sydney Cricket Ground, Moore Park

The summer of cricket culminates in the series between Australia, England and India. The match this Monday sees Australia take on India on Australia Day. In what will surely be summer's biggest dress up party, go dressed in your best costumes to be a part of all the action. Doors open at 2:20pm, but if you find yourself in the midst of Australia Day action in the city don't sweat it because you can catch the second session at 6:30pm!

sydneycricketground.com.au

EVENT OF THE WEEK

Australia Day and PA Tyler Event

Monday, 26 January
Throughout the city

Get ready for an action packed Monday because Australia day is upon us! Dress up and celebrate everything that is Australian. There will be events in Darling Harbour, Circular Quay, The Rocks and more! Visit the website below to plan out your day or head downtown and just start exploring! PA Tyler will be organising a group to take part in the Havaianas Challenge at Bondi Beach.

Keep an eye out for more information coming your way!

australiaday.com.au

Advisors on Internships

"Again, excellent work to those of you gaining internship placements! Keep up your positive attitudes and remember to have an open mind. Also keep in mind that 20% of your grade for the internship is from your BU Advisor so keep that clear and polite communication up."

Luna Park Lunacy

Friday & Saturday Nights, After 6PM
Luna Park, Milson's Point on Sydney Harbour

Most of you saw Sydney's little amusement park under the Harbour Bridge during the cruise. Now grab a friend and head to Luna Park for their 2-for-1 deal on unlimited ride tickets both Friday and Saturday evenings. The thrill of watching the Harbour Bridge spin upside down at night is pretty cool as is the old school Coney Island section.

lunaparksydney.com

Pascal on Facilities

"Just a reminder concerning opening hours, please do not attempt to enter the teaching center after hours as you will set off the alarm. All entry points to the building are monitored by security alarms, and any attempt to enter when the facilities are closed will be regarded as a security violation. Opening hours: 9AM - 8:30PM Monday - Thursday, 9AM - 5PM Friday, Closed on weekends."