

Even if the weather doesn't quite always cooperate, make sure you make the most of your days and nights in Sydney. There's always something to do whether indoors or out!

Sharon on Academics

"The AN368 Quiz is scheduled for this Thursday, make sure you have picked up the readings folder from the library. AH374 and PO260 will go to Canberra for their day field trip on Monday, 2 February. Also, keep in mind modules are beginning next week!"

Serial Trivia at Goodgod Small Club

Wednesday, 28 January at 8pm
Goodgod Small Club, Liverpool St

If you binged on Serial like most of us out there and happened to hijack every conversation about it then you are in luck! Gather a team together and register online for Goodgod's Serial Trivia night. Make sure you know your stuff, hosts will be asking where is Leakin Park? And what was the most popular song of 1999?

goodgodgoodgod.com

Thursdays at Cliff Dive

Thursdays until 26 February from 6pm
Oxford Square, Darlinghurst

The Oxford Street hotspot provides ample amounts of midweek shenanigans. Resident DJ Marc Rondeau will be joined by a special guest each week. And if you get peckish, it's the one day of the week that you can snag the almost incomprehensible Metric Special: that's 1kg of wings and 1L of Young Henry's lager for an even $20. Definitely worth checking out!

facebook.com/thecliffdive

Rock & Roll and Alternative Markets

Sunday, 1 February 10:30am- 5:30pm
Manning Road, Camperdown

Browse crates of vinyl, take a swing dancing class or get dolled up at the retro styling station. Shop three levels of throwback at Sydney Uni with more than 100 stallholders peddling rock 'n' roll-inspired vintage clothing, books, art and vinyl. There's always live music, vintage vehicle displays, and even a tiki bar!

rocknrollmarket.com

EVENT OF THE WEEK

No Lights No Lycra

Mondays 7:30- 8:30pm
Bondi Pavilion, Bondi

The weekly dance party in the dark takes up residency in Bondi. "We keep our divas on high rotation: Mariah, Yoncé, Mary J, Gwen..." said Ash Maher from No Lights No Lycra. With a little hip hop, a few Aussie faves and big-room anthems added to the playlist, we can see why NLNL has such a following. They'll be dancing like no one's watching on Monday nights in Bondi and Thursday nights in Newtown. Pay $5 at the door for the ultimate 1-hour of letting loose!

nolightsnolykra.com

Advisors on Internships

"Congratulations to those of you who secured a placement this week. For those still awaiting interviews, we appreciate your patience. Remember, communication is the name of the game!"

PA Brandon Sydney Tower Skywalk Event

Saturday, 14 February
Sydney Tower Eye, CBD

PA Brandon is taking a group to the Skywalk at the Sydney Tower Eye. You'll be walking on air 268 metres above stunning Sydney, with the city streets directly beneath your feet. You can look down through the glass floor viewing platform for a bird's-eye perspective of the bustling city below. Keep an eye out for the sign-up sheet!

sydneytowereye.com

Jenna on Drop Bear Cup Prizes

"Big thanks to everyone who participated! If you are a member of one of the top three teams, come to the office to collect your prizes on Friday!"