

Congratulations on overcoming the rainy weather! Hopefully, you're adapting to Sydney life and making the most of your time. Here are some cool Winter festivities to help you unwind!

Advisors on Internships

If you have yet to meet with your advisor for your internship progress meeting, do not despair. Progress meetings will take place over the course of the next two weeks. If you are out sick, please remember to notify us!

Sydney Whale Watching

Two Cruises Per-Day

Depart from Circular Quay, Darling Harbour, or Manly

It's whale watching season! Experience the excitement of a whale watching cruise aboard Sydney Whale Watching. They offer a 4 hour morning or 2.5 hour afternoon cruise. Revel in the excitement of spotting the first pod on their annual migration past Sydney's famous beaches and cliff lines. Don't forget your sunnies, warm clothes, and of course, a camera to capture the memorable moments.

Winter Garden @ St Mary's Cathedral

Daily Until 19 July, Rain or Shine

St Mary's Cathedral, Adjacent to Hyde Park

Experience the magical delights of Sydney winter (fake snow included). Slip down the inflatable slide, throw on some skates, spin on the ice, take to the slopes on the mechanical snowboard...or, if action isn't your flavour, get cozy with some animals in the petting zoo or grab a spot by the crackling fireplace in the Winter Garden Après Skate Lounge. Entry is free, but some events require tickets.

EVENT OF THE WEEK

PA Event: Luna Park Lunacy

Saturday, 28 June, 5:45PM, Meet Outside BUSAC

Luna Park, Milson's Point

PA Shikha will be leading a group to Luna Park this Saturday night! Grab a friend and buy the 2-for-1 unlimited ride tickets online (making it only $25 per person) before you go. The thrill of watching the Harbour Bridge spin upside down at night is pretty cool. Hurry up because this might be your last chance for cheap tickets! Shikha will leave BUSAC at 5:45PM for Luna Park. Also, Our Lips are Sealed was filmed here... so if you're a Mary-Kate and Ashley fan, this event is a go!
