

the Sydney Sider Quay

Hope everyone is looking forward to heading south to Melbourne! Be sure to take advantage of Saturday in Sydney, but remember, you're responsible for showing up on time Sunday morning outside BUSAC at 8:45am.

Sharon on Academics

"The first module paper (AN368) is DUE on Friday, 18 September at 4PM, through the library, with a cover sheet. Have a lovely week in Melbourne!"

Sydney Underground Film Festival

17-20 September various times

See the website for full schedule details

Programming a wild and diverse range of indie, experimental, unique, artistic, boundary-pushing, and mind-bending bunch of films as well as special events, live guests, Q and As, and opening and closing parties! The festival programs unique, quality independent films that transgress the status quo and challenge the conservative conventions of filmmaking. The festival is devoted to renewing local interest in independent and experimental film as part of an international underground film culture and aims to change an ingrained culture of cinematic complacency and revitalise an enthusiasm for cinema.

suff.com.au

LOOKING FORWARD

VELVET at the Opera House

6 Oct - 1 Nov

Sydney Opera House

Sydney gets the chance to let its Young Hearts Run Free at the global theatrical phenomenon that has become VELVET. When a young ingénue (Brenan Maclean) slips behind the red velvet rope at the glamorous nightclub that is VELVET, he encounters dazzling acrobatics, disco divas, seductive chanteuses, beautiful burlesque performers and a hot, pulsating atmosphere. It changes him and empowers him! The performance follows his seduction and his transformation. VELVET is the hottest new show on the global festival circuit, and for four disco-tastic weeks in The Studio at the Sydney Opera House, this glitter-ball world will be the hottest ticket in town!

sydneyoperahouse.com/whatson

Pascal on Residence

"Please remember to turn off your AC and lights in your apartment before you leave for Melbourne on Sunday. Also, please ensure you lock your bedroom door as an added security measure."

EVENT OF THE WEEK

Beams Arts Festival

19 September, 5-10pm

Central Park, Chippendale Green

Right in our backyard, the BEAMS Arts Festival is a flash in the night of colour, form, movement and sound, descending upon the streets of Chippendale to illuminate the creative talent of Sydney. This multi-disciplinary arts festival showcases work from the whole spectrum of the arts, with creatives coming together in the hundreds to surge the voltage of ideas and inspiration. For one night only each September, the cutting-edge curatorial emphasis of BEAMS by the Chippendale Creative Precinct provides a scintillating insight into the minds of Sydney's best forward-thinking talent. This is one not to miss!

beamsfestival.com.au

Goros Toho Nights

Thursdays, 8pm until late

Mary Street, Surry Hills

A monster-sized mid-week party at Goros. You can't keep a good city down. As one venue closes another launches a monster-sized mid-week party to show there's plenty of life left in Sydney after dark. Toho Nights is set to turn your Thursday on its head at Goros with cult cinema, musos unfettered, DJs gone wild, Japanese street food, karaoke and arcade games.

au.timeout.com/sydney/bars

Sydney Uni Gridiron Homecoming Game

Saturday, 19 September from 3pm

The Square, Entry via Arena Sports Centre

The Sydney Uni Lions will be playing the Wollongong Mustangs this Saturday. The lions kick-off at 7pm and there will be a tailgate BBQ from 3pm before the game! Bring your buddies and some cash for a sausage roll, and get ready for a day of classic Aussie sports-day fun!

sydneyunigradiron.com/

