

Outlining In-class Activity

Writing an outline of a course text

Goal: To practice distinguishing the relative importance of ideas in a text.

Task: Work in groups of 3-4 students and practice creating an outline of a text your professor has assigned. You will then share the outlines with other teams, and review and evaluate each outline's effectiveness as a visual representation of the reading material.