

Sentence Clarity: Characters and Actions Module

In-class Activity

Instructions:

Share your revised page from the online activity with classmates in small groups, and ask your peers to identify moments when your sentences are still wordy, clunky, or confusing. Discuss moments when different principles of style and sentence clarity seem to conflict, and talk about how to choose between different principles of clarity, concision, and coherence.