

REFLECTIONS ON PRESENTATION

Now that you have completed this presentation, let's discuss what we learned.

1. Name three interesting facts you learned about your classmates when you were watching the presentations:
2. Did you find anything in common between your hometown or culture and the hometown and culture of another classmate? What were these common aspects?
3. Were there big differences between your cultural background and the cultural backgrounds of your classmates? If yes, name some of these differences.
4. Think about the oral presentations:

What went well?

What did not go so well?

What would you do differently the next time?

Write three tips for preparing a presentation:

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Write three tips for practicing a presentation:

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Write three considerations for working as a team on a presentation:

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

The best visual aids should meet four criteria:

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

---

“Parallel construction on visual aids of a presentation slide” means:

---

What are two key considerations for opening a presentation?

1. _____

2. _____

Identifying the key words’ stress patterns is useful for preparing a presentation because:

---

Two tips for using effective body language during a presentation are:

1. _____

2. _____

Three tips for closing a presentation are:

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____