Congratulations, Seniors!
We’re so proud of you and everything you’ve accomplished!
Senior Week is from Saturday, May 12 – Thursday, May 17. Have you checked out the activities yet?

You can take a trip to Six Flags or Martha’s Vineyard, tour craft beer breweries, dance at Royale Night Club, take over Harpoon Brewery, join the traditional Lawn on D Clam Bake, and lots of other great events!

No matter where you go after graduation, we love to hear about how you’re doing and what amazing adventures you’re undertaking.

Congratulations, and we wish you all the best!

Connect with Faculty and Staff
One of the best things about Boston University is the amazing support network. The faculty and staff are all here to help you grow, learn, and achieve your goals. The Community Connections Directory lists faculty and staff from a variety of departments, all of whom are happy to share their knowledge and experience with you.

You can talk to them about a wide range of topics, from personal growth to academic questions to administrative tangles. They’re all here to help with your journey, and they’re just an email away!

First Gen Connect Study Break
May 4 from 3-5 pm
Play games, decorate a cake, and take a break from the stress of finals!
Let us know you’re coming!

Drowning in final papers and exam prep? We’ve all been there. Take a deep breath, drink some water, and think about reaching out to your professors, TAs, or the ERC for help.

Remember, you can do this! We’re cheering for you!
