About Marie Enochty, Program Manager at Boston Public Schools, Early Childhood Department

For the past ten years, Marie Enochty has worked as a program manager for Boston Public Schools’ (BPS) PreK-2nd grades. BPS has achieved NAEYC accreditation in over 35 schools. Coaching and mentoring is a major part of Marie’s work. BPS designed their own curriculum for PreK - 2nd grade: Focus on Early Learning. Marie also implements curriculum support and professional development throughout the year. Boston’s UPK is run through BPS. Marie works with the sites to provide coaching and support for NAEYC accreditation.

Enochty coordinates all national site visits to Boston’s schools. BPS’s research grant with IES (Institute of Education Sciences) has garnered much attention and visits to BPS schools. Its ExCel study evaluates all aspects of BPS PreK-3rd grade work. Enochty also leads the work to ensure that it encompasses CLSP (Culturally and Linguistically Sustained Practices).

Before her work with BPS, Marie Enochty was a member of the team that wrote Massachusetts Infant and Toddler Guidelines. She also worked for Valora Washington and the CAYL Institute in supporting early childhood educators across the state. Marie taught and supervised in special education settings, Head Start, community based programs, and out of school time.

A 29-year resident of Brewster, MA on Cape Cod, Marie won an elected seat as an elementary school committee member and has served 15 years for the town. She has served as president of Cape Cod NAEYC chapter, was appointed to the NAEYC accreditation council, and served on the MAAEYC board as well.
