

Summary of BU WIN programs

Programs are open to all STEM faculty in CAS, ENG, and SAR (unless otherwise noted).

Faculty network study. Ongoing.
Mary Erskine WIN Faculty Grants Type I awards (up to $3,000) to cover expenses such as travel, equipment, conference fees, child care, and hosting collaborators. Proposals accepted on a rolling basis. Type II awards (3 up to $20,000) to seed new areas of research and foster new collaborations. Next deadline TBA, early fall 2009. Available to STEM faculty women
WIN Colloquia to bring distinguished women scientists and engineers to campus to give technical seminars within ongoing department or center seminar series Women from industry Women from other ADVANCE schools Solicitation for 2009-2010 academic year participants open again in August.
Pre-Tenure mentoring activities for pre-tenure STEM faculty Fall semester—pre-tenure mentoring panel luncheon (held Dec. 11, 2008) Spring semester—focused mentoring partnerships Next event fall 2009.
Lunches with Leaders for STEM faculty women (occasional and ongoing)
New faculty networking reception (to be held in spring 2010)
WISE/WIN discussions with female faculty candidates in STEM (at the request of Departments)