

WR Student Resources

WRITING SUPPORT

Want help starting an assignment or getting additional feedback on your draft? The CAS Writing Center offers free, one-on-one appointments with well-trained peer writing consultants.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT SUPPORT

ISSO is your go-to spot for visa or legal questions, while Global Programs offers international student peer mentors, webinars, and newsletters.

URGENT PRACTICAL NEEDS

Need help with food insecurity, laptop loaners, or short-term emergency assistance? The Dean of Students may have options.

STUDENT WELLBEING

Need mental health support, additional academic support, arts opportunities, religious and cultural services, or more? Check out Student Wellbeing to search through thousands of resources across BU.

FIRST-GEN STUDENTS

The Newbury Center offers a warm, accepting environment with advice and community events for first-gen students.

As faculty, we in the Writing Program are dedicated to student inclusion and success. Please contact Writing Program administrators at writing@bu.edu or in our offices (100 Bay State Road, third floor) with any concerns about your WR course.

Arts & Sciences
Writing Program